

MUSIC FROM THE INSIDE OUT

- ▶ THE FILM
- ▶ MUSIC & THE MIND
- ▶ FILMMAKER BIO
- ▶ FILMMAKER Q&A
- ▶ LEARN MORE
- ▶ TALKBACK
- ▶ GET THE VIDEO

EXPERIENCE THE MUSIC

 PREVIEW

 SCHEDULE

Experience the Music

The soundtrack to MUSIC FROM THE INSIDE OUT features more than 35 eclectic musical works—from salsa, jazz and bluegrass to Middle Eastern and Asian music, string quartets and symphonies. The film follows orchestra members in and outside the concert hall, making the music they love.

Watch video and listen to music performed by artists from The Philadelphia Orchestra below.

"I think bluegrass may help me in hearing other sections in the orchestra clearer..." —Zach DePue

Experience the lively bluegrass fiddle and banjo tune "Ragtime Annie," performed by brothers Zachary and Jason De Pue and the band Mark Cosgrove and Good Medicine, at The Mermaid Inn, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. (3:56)

"I really thought I was going to be a jazz horn player." —Adam Unsworth

Take a jazz journey with French horn player Adam Unsworth as he performs Charlie Parker's "Blues for Alice". (2:16)

Get some Latin flavor when Philadelphia Orchestra percussionists Anthony Orlando, Angela Zator Nelson and Don Liuzzi, are joined by Scott Robinson and Rolando Morales-Matos performing Morales-Matos' "Little Rhumba". (4:23)

Principal Bassist Harold (Hal) Robinson adds Spanish flair with his rendition of François Rabbath's "Ode to Espanol". (1:40)

top

Home | The Film | Music & the Mind | Filmmaker Bios | Filmmaker Q&A | Learn More | Talkback | Site Credits

Home | About | Program Guide | Get Involved | Interactive | Inside Indies

CONTACT US

GET THE NEWSLETTER

PRESSROOM

Posted 4/25/06 © 2007 Independent Television Service (ITVS). All rights reserved. | PBS Privacy Policy | Credits