Kobacker Hall
Moore Musical Arts Center

BGSU alumna, Cristina Purje, has been diagnosed with a rare and aggressive form of adrenal cancer. The 26-year-old violinist has undergone extensive bone replacement surgery. A native of Romania, Cristina has no health insurance and is not eligible for public aid. Donations will be used to offset Cristina's medical and living expenses.

About Cristina... Born in Oradea, Romania in 1979, Cristina Purje began her musical training in the Liceul de Muzica Oradea at age six. After graduating from the music high school with honors, she was accepted in violin performance to the renowned Gh. Dima Music Academy in Cluj, Romania.

As a student, Cristina traveled throughout Germany and France with the Gh. Dima Orchestra and performed with the Oradea Philharmonic, Romanian National Opera Orchestra, Transylvanian Philharmonic, Sibiu Philharmonic, Satu-Mare Philharmonic and the Hungarian National Opera Orchestra. Also during Cristina's years at the academy, she traveled to the United States to study violin with Vasile Beluska at the Chautauqua Institution.

After graduating from the academy with degrees in violin performance and pedagogy, she was accepted into the master's program at the College of Musical Arts and awarded one of the its prestigious Graduate String Quartet assistantships.

While at BGSU, she served as the concertmaster of the Bowling Green Philharmonia and was a member of various regional orchestras, including the Adrian, Birmingham, Jackson and Great Lakes Symphony Orchestras in Michigan, and the Lima, Ohio Northern and Firelands Symphony Orchestras in Ohio.

After graduating in 2005, Cristina moved to Chicago where she taught violin and performed as a freelance musician with the New Philharmonic Orchestra, Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra, Illinois Symphony Orchestra and the Rockford Symphony Orchestra. Additionally, she has served as Orchestra Librarian for the Grant Park Music Festival and the Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra.
